The future of nursing is here.

Building Relationships Throughout the Organization

Learn from an acknowledged expert about the important topic of building relationships, an essential area of expertise for effective leadership.

Maureen P. McCausland, DNSc, RN, FAAN
UWHC Senior Vice President of Patient Care Services, Chief Nursing Officer

Thursday, June 24, 2010
1300-1400 • HSLC 1335

1.0 contact hour will be awarded for this program.
University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Wisconsin Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.

Planning Committee: Dianne Danis, MS, RN, NEA-BC, FAAN; DuAnne Edwards, MN, RN; Marilyn Haynes-Brokopp, MS, RN, APHN-BC

Dr. Maureen P. McCausland is the Senior Vice President of Patient Care Services and Chief Nursing Officer at University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics.

She has extensive experience in nurse executive practice at the University of Pennsylvania Health System, The University Hospitals of Cleveland, and Boston’s Beth Israel Hospital.

Dr. McCausland’s scholarly focus is on the creation of professional practice models and the relationship to patient outcomes, professional nurse satisfaction and interdisciplinary collaboration. Dr. McCausland is the author of numerous articles, book chapters and monographs related to executive practice as well as victimology.

DISCOVER WHAT THE FUTURE HOLDS FOR CLINICAL LEARNING

Co-Sponsored by UWHC Department of Nursing and Patient Care Services and the UW-Madison School of Nursing