Cultural Health Care Practices in Tanzania, Africa

October 22, 2013

HSRC 1306
1600-1700

Presented by:
Elizabeth Marie Mach RN, MPH
Missionary Nurse, Musoma, Tanzania

Elizabeth Mach is the Assistant to Administrator/Consultant for
The Termination of Female Genital Mutilation Project in Tanzania, Africa.
She has received recognition as a leading advocate for these women. Her experience has included refugee work—Sudanese, Burundian, Rwandan Refugees both in rural and clinic/hospital settings.

Audience:
Allied Health professionals who are interested in learning about international health care practices.

Purpose:
This offering is designed to identify and interpret a health care practice in Tanzania. Africa.

Sponsored by:
Wisconsin Chapter of the Transcultural Nursing Society
&
Education and Development for Nursing & Patient Care Services

1.0 Contact hours will be awarded for this program.

University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Wisconsin Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.

Planning Committee: Tracey Abitz, MS, RN, CTN-B; Helen Martin, MS, RN
Sara L. Moldenhauer, MS, RN, AOCNS, CTN-B