Beta Eta Chapter Sigma Theta Tau International Scholarships:

Undergraduate Nursing Scholarship Awards

The Beta Eta Chapter-at-Large of Sigma Theta Tau is pleased to announce the award of two $500 Scholarships. Students at Edgewood College and the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Nursing are eligible to apply. Applications will be reviewed for academic performance, personal and professional goals, and professional and community service.

Graduate Nursing Scholarship Award

One scholarship award of $1000 will be awarded to one graduate nursing student. Academic performance, personal, community, and professional goals and accomplishments will be considered. Students at Edgewood College and the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Nursing are eligible to apply.

Graduate Student Research Award

There will be two $1500 awards given to support the research training and scholarship in nursing science of a member of Sigma Theta Tau who is currently enrolled in either a Doctorate of Nursing Practice Program or PhD program. Students at Edgewood College and the University of Wisconsin-Madison are eligible to apply. A succinct and carefully written description of the proposed research will assist the reviewers in evaluating the purpose, method, and feasibility of the research plan. There are two separate applications for the DNP and the PhD application.

Application forms may be obtained from Program Assistant Jackie O’Brien, UW-Madison School of Nursing, 600 Highland Avenue, Madison, WI 53792-2455, Room K6-312 (telephone 265-9863), or by email to jjobrien2@wisc.edu. Upon requesting an application, please be specific in your message of which scholarship you are applying for in order to receive the correct application form, for example, Undergraduate, Graduate, or the Graduate Student Research Award (DNP or PhD).

Deadline for all Sigma Theta Tau Scholarship submissions: March 15, 2014.
